

Latest Developments in Canada's Economic Immigration System:

Thursday May 12, 2016, 8:00 am – 11:30 am

Ontario Investment and Trade Centre

250 Yonge Street | 35th Floor | Toronto, ON M5B 2L7

Registration 8:00 – 8:30

Updated guidelines for compliance, inspections and AMPs 8:30 – 9:45

The new Administrative Monetary Penalty (AMP) regime came on stream in December 2015. Since that time over 100 administrative reviews have been completed. Rules around the compliance requirements continue to be refined. Hear the latest developments about how the AMP system is being implemented and the steps you need to take to ensure compliance.

Campion Carruthers, Service Canada, Andrea Knight, Service Canada, Heather Moriarty, Immigration Refugee and Citizenship Canada, Stephen Green, Green and Spiegel

The business case for implementing an Immigration Compliance Program Office 9:45 – 10:15

Immigration compliance is a growing concern for business, requiring greater attention and allocation of resources. Is it now advisable to adopt a permanent position within the enterprise to manage compliance issues?

Troy Pariag IBM, Doreen Buskner, BDO

Refocusing Canada's Economic Immigration Programs 10:30 – 11:00

Recent announcements from the new federal government have resulted in a shift in focus away from economic immigration to family reunification and humanitarian streams for 2016. How will this impact employers seeking to hire skilled workers?

Naumaan Hameed and Melissa Babel, KPMG

Accessing Ontario's Provincial Nominee Program 11:00 – 11:30

The Ontario Provincial Nominee Program can be a great resource to organizations looking to recruit international skilled workers. Many employers don't consider the program in their HR immigration strategies. Learn more about how to navigate the system and the steps you need to take to remain compliant with new provincial regulations.

Randy Hahn, Guberman Garson